

Don't leave your inland transportation up to chance.
Go with the people who know how to Speed to Market.sm

Need a lift? Crowley Logistics will get you where you need to go quickly and cost-effectively. Our heritage as an ocean shipping company means our people know how to get cargo in, out and around ports. Add our coast-to-coast network of rail and trucking resources and knowledgeable logistics staff, and you've got unmatched intermodal capabilities. For local drayage, we use the best available equipment – either our own or from one of the many independent trucking companies in our network. And whether or not Crowley's your ocean shipper, our third party trucking group can manage your inland moves by rail or by truck. We service freight forwarders, manufacturers, consignees – even customers whose freight hasn't been on the water at all. So no matter who you are or where your cargo's going to, we'll get it there the right way, at the right price, at the right time. That's Speed to Market.sm

People who know Crowley know that when it comes to inland transportation solutions, we get the thumbs-up. For more details on inland transportation or our complete supply chain services, call 904-727-4046. Or visit www.crowley.com.
