	Revision: Original Publishing Code: I
A request for the reconsignment or diversion of a shipment to effect a change in the name or address of a Consignor or Consignee, a change in the destination or place of delivery will be accepted subject to the following provisions: A. Conditions <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Request for reconsignment or diversion must be made in writing and the Carrier must be satisfied that the party making the request has the authority to do so. Conditional or qualified request for reconsignment or diversion will not be accepted. 2. A shipment which has been tendered for delivery may not thereafter be reconsigned or diverted but may be reshipped. A shipment may not be reconsigned, diverted, or reshipped in violation of an embargo. 3. Only entire shipments (not portions of shipments) may be reconsigned or diverted. 4. Carrier will make diligent efforts to execute valid reconsignment or diversion orders, but will not be responsible if, despite such efforts, reconsignment or diversion is not affected. 5. Reconsignment or diversion in the Leeward and Windward Islands will be permitted only on shipments where the new destination or point of delivery is within the same basing point as the original billed destination or point of delivery. Requests to reconsign or divert shipments to destinations or points of delivery outside the original basing point will be handled only on a reshipment basis. 6. Reconsignment or diversion in the United States will not be permitted. B. A charge of $60.00 per shipment will be made for reconsigning or diverting a shipment. This charge does not include any Transportation Charges beyond the original billed destination point or original place of delivery. Any Demurrage Charges incurred by reason of diversion or reconsignment shall be for the account of the party ordering said diversion or reconsignment. The acceptance of Demurrage Charges should be included in the diversion or reconsignment letter. NOTE: If change to document is other than a diversion or reconsignment this rule is not applicable.
