

Crowley Liner Org 023286 Tariff 002	Date Filed: 6/7/18 Date Effective 6/14/18
Rule Name: REFRIGERATED EQUIPMENT ENERGY CHARGE	Revision: Original Publishing Code: I
Refrigerated Equipment Energy Charge in Puerto Rico and US Terminals. IN PUERTO RICO: Following the third (3rd) business day after vessel completes discharge on Southbound shipments (US to Puerto Rico) the Carrier will assess an Energy Charge of $150.00 per day when the Carrier is required to maintain operating reefers in their terminal facilities. On Northbound shipments from Puerto Rico to the US the Carrier will allow 3 free business days of Energy charges starting the day after the container is delivered to the terminal. The Carrier will then assess an Energy Charge of $150.00 per day when the Carrier is required to maintain operating reefers in their terminal facilities. Energy Charges Shall Be Suspended when the Carrier Delays Or Cancels A Scheduled Sailing. IN THE UNITED STATES: Following the third (3rd) business days after vessel completes discharge on Northbound shipments (Puerto Rico to US) the Carrier will assess an Energy Charge of $150.00 per day when the Carrier is required to maintain operating reefers in their terminal facilities. On Southbound shipments from the US to Puerto Rico the Carrier will allow 3 free business days of Energy charges starting the day after the container is delivered to the terminal. The Carrier will then assess an Energy Charge of $150.00 per day when the Carrier is required to maintain operating reefers in their terminal facilities. Energy Charges Shall Be Suspended when the Carrier Delays Or Cancels A Scheduled Sailing. The aforementioned Energy Charges will apply to all open tariff and contract shipments.	