

Interception of tree hopper in a shipment of mint from Colombia. This is the first time this species has been intercepted nationwide according to available national records. Vestistilus vacca has only been recorded from Colombia, Ecuador and Mexico.