Rule Name: MULTIPLE BILLS OF LADINGS	Date Effective 6/14/18
	Revision: Original Publishing Code: I
Cargo moving in a single container or trailer, may (for the purpose of rating), be allowed to move on more than one Bill of Lading, from one or more Shippers to one Consignee. Cargo shall move from one Port of loading, on one Vessel, at one time, to one Port of discharge. In applying charges, the cargo will be rated on the same basis as if it were moving on a single Bill of Lading, and the charges will be prorated to the individual Bill of Ladings based on the weight or measure contained on each Bill of Lading. Bill of Lading fee to be assessed for each Bill of Lading. (See Notes) Note 1: A documentation charge of $50.00 per Bill of Lading will apply on each individual Bill of Lading issued. Note 2: This exception will apply on shipper loaded shipments only. Note 3: Not applicable to shipments of Freight All Kinds.
