NOTES:

1. Shipments of vehicles consisting of 5 or more units on the same voyage will be allowed a free time of 10 calendar days.
2. Trailers, containers, and/or chassis received by carriers at their terminal not later than 10:00 A.M. will be considered as having been received prior day for computing free time and demurrage.
3. Whenever freight remains undelivered, through no fault of the carrier, after expiration of free time as provided herein, carrier may place the freight in a public storage warehouse at the expense of and for the account of the consignee or owner.
4. No demurrage is applicable for delay caused by carrier in receipt of Trailers, Containers, and/or Chassis.

Claims for waiver of demurrage in such instances shall be filed in writing, stating all facts upon which the claim is based. Such claims shall be allowed where carrier fault is established.

5. Claims for refunds of demurrage charges must be presented in writing to the carrier within one year of the date that the cause of action accrues and will be allowed only when proof of error is submitted by customer or his representative.
